Phoenix School of Roseburg

With outstanding community support Phoenix School of Roseburg, a private non-profit youth development organization, has been able to continuously offer award-winning youth development and educational programs since 1981. Our main campus provides a designed 30,000 square foot facility sited on a picturesque twelve-acre campus in east Roseburg, OR. The Touchstone and River Rock Facilities are just a five minute drive from the main campus in Historic Downtown Roseburg. The BrightWorks Academy is a collaborative program between the Douglas County Juvenile Department and the Phoenix School of Roseburg.

Our educational model emphasizes a developmental approach:

- 1) Individualized – The CTE Teacher meets the student from where they are in their abilities to be a student, including: reading, writing, and understanding math, and works to help them grow. Classroom group activities are possible but the learning activities are more individually targeted.
- 2) Developmental – Some students may not possess social or academic skills needed to benefit from regular high school classroom instruction, positively identify as a student, or possess the confidence of a capable learner. The classroom teaches students school culture, how to function as capable students, and how to be more capable, engaged learners. This lays a foundation for students to continue successful academic engagement and achievement after graduation from treatment.
- 3) Targeted Curriculum & Instruction – The CTE Teacher has academic freedom to design the learning and to select the curriculum materials most appropriate for each student to be able to demonstrate learning standards. Phoenix will offer support and resources to aid the Instructional Assistant in developing instruction, assessment, and curriculum.

Roseburg is the service center of rural Douglas County located on I-5 just over an hour south of Eugene and situated just over an hour from the Cascade Mountains to the East, the Oregon Coast to the West, and Rogue River/Southern Oregon to the south. For those who love outdoor recreation and a great place to raise children, Roseburg has much to offer.
